Please confirm that you have read these and if applicable, describe any potential concerns you have regarding this statement. Please confirm that you are willing to abide within these areas of faith and practice and not seek to work against the theological positions with which you may disagree.

Why do you want to join Grace Baptist Chapel?

Please place this in the offering plate at the back of the church sanctuary or hand to the Pastor at the end of a service. After this application is reviewed, the Pastor and/or another Elder will set up a membership interview for you (and your family if applicable) and once completed to the approval of the Elders, your name will be presented for two consecutive weeks to the church as a potential member after which the church congregation will vote on your membership. If affirmed, you will be a member following that vote. There will be an opportunity to ask questions regarding any aspect of this process or the church at the interview.
